The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD)

- The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) is the world's largest funding organisation in the world supporting over 100,000 German and international students and scholars around the globe.
- The DAAD-budget is mainly financed by the German Federal Foreign Office, but also from the European Union and a number of enterprises, organisations and foreign Molliburge governments.
- DAAD scholarships are aimed primarily at graduates, doctoral students and are awarded for study and research visits to universities and non-university research institutions in Germany.
- DAAD stipend: Monthly scholarship payment (€934 for graduates and €1,200 for doctoral/PhD students), travel allowance, health insurance etc.

Goals and Tasks of the DAAD

Three strategic areas of activity

STRUCTURES FOR INTERNATIONALIZATION

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR THE BEST

Grant scholarships to the best

- Provide scholarships to outstanding individuals to enable them to pursue education at top-tier institutions.
- Develop the skills necessary for future leadership roles, and establish global networks.

EXPERTISE FOR ACADEMIC COLLABORATION

Create structures that promote internationalisation

- Develop international structures for improved research and education quality.
- Foster partnerships to address future challenges effectively.
- Facilitate global mobility for individuals to achieve success in academia.
- Preserve the importance of the German language in culture and scholarship.
- Leverage higher education institutions to promote development and conflict resolution.

Offer expertise for academic collaboration

 Provide academic expertise to support informed policy decisions by academic and political leaders through collaborative efforts.

- Copies of academic transcripts, including grading scale (certified translation if necessary).
- Note that some courses may require additional documents. Please see the relevant course description in the brochure.

Motivation Letter

- 1. Begin early and don't rush the process.
- 2. Your letter of motivation should refrain from repeating your CV.
- 3. Your letter of motivation must address these key inquiries:
- What is your existing professional experience, and how do you envision it benefiting your future studies?
- What personal and professional objectives do you aspire to accomplish while in Germany, and what knowledge do you aim to acquire?
- How do your professional aspirations align with your field of study?
- How do you intend to utilize your German qualifications and degree to facilitate collaboration between your home country and Germany?
- What motivates your desire to study in Germany and specifically apply to the chosen master's program? Which courses within this program will significantly advance your career objectives?
- 4. Ensure your letter of motivation is thoughtfully structured. Begin by contemplating the questions mentioned above, take notes, conduct further research, and engage in discussions with peers. Then, create an outline and proceed to draft the content.
- 5. Adhere to an appropriate writing style:
- Avoid clichés, overly ornate language, and flattery.
- Approach your topics with a reflective and factual tone, avoiding any overt advocacy for personal beliefs.
- 6. Carefully review and remove any superfluous or redundant sections from your text. Ultimately, your letter of motivation should not exceed two pages in length.

CV

- Should be detailed and well written in a chronological manner.
- Educational background, work experience, awards, publication etc
- Use Action words.
